Lauriston- CARRIACOU Island (Grenada)

Permit for Humanitarian Flights

Aircraft operators wishing to operate flights to Lauriston Airport (TGPZ) in Carriacou for humanitarian purposes are hereby advised, that with immediate effect a permit is required for such operations and can be obtained from the Civil Aviation Division via the email address, mcarter@aviation.gov.gd

The permit carries the following restrictions:

1. AIRPORT LIMITATIONS

Due to the limitations of airport facilities at Lauriston Airport (TGPZ) in Carriacou:

All flights intending to operate into Lauriston Airport (TGPZ) must originate from Maurice Bishop International Airport (TGPY) in Grenada.

All flights operating out of Lauriston Airport (TGPZ) must be destined for Maurice Bishop International Airport (TGPY) in Grenada.

2. COORDINATION FOR SAFETY

Aircraft operators are required to coordinate arrival and departure times at Lauriston Airport (TGPZ) with the Maurice Bishop International Airport (TGPY) in the interest of safety.

3. OVERNIGHT RESTRICTIONS

Aircraft are not permitted to overnigh at Lauriston Airport (TGPZ).

4. PERMIT VALIDITY

Permits will be valid for up to 90 days in the first instance at no cost. This measure is to ensure the control of aircraft movement in the interest of safety.
